JOHB JOURNAL OF ORAL HEALTH AND BIOSCIENCES

INSTRUCTION FOR AUTHORS

The Journal of Oral Health and Biosciences is published by Shikoku Society of Dental Research (Tokushima University Faculty of Dentistry) for reviews, original articles, thesis, clinical case reports, and reports in dentistry and related areas. Authors submitting a paper do so on the understanding that the work has not been published before, is not being considered for publication elsewhere, and has been read and approved by all authors.

ETHICAL COMPLIANCE

All human investigations must be conducted according to the principles expressed in the Declaration of Helsinki. All studies involving animals must state that guidelines for the use and care of laboratory animals of the authors' institution or any national law were followed. All human and animal studies need the ethical committee's approval, and the authors need to write the approval number in the manuscript. Conflict of interest is required to be stated for all accepted papers published in the Journal of Oral Health and Biosciences. If there is no conflict of interest, a statement declaring this will still be included in the paper.

REVIEWING SYSTEM

All Submitted manuscripts are carefully and rigorously reviewed by several reviewers designated by the Editorial Committee. Then those papers are further reviewed by the Committee and judged the acceptance or rejection. The decision and detail of review will be notified to the contributor via the posting system. Authors can indicate their recommended referees in the cover letter.

ONLINE SUBMISSION

To submit, login at https://www.editorialmanager.com/johb and create a new submission.

Please submit the "JOHB Submission Checklist" along with the paper.

Before you submit, you will need to check the following:

- The paper should be submitted in English (Font: Times New Roman, 12 point). For the preparation of the paper in Japanese, please access "和文用投稿規定" for the Journal of Oral Health and Biosciences page on the website.
- The manuscript should be an editable file including the title page, abstract, main text, references, figures, tables, or separate files—whichever you prefer. All required sections should be contained in your manuscript, including Abstract, Introduction, Patients and methods/Materials and methods, Results, and Discussion. You should provide the page numbers of text bodies in the center of the page bottom. Figures and tables should have legends. Figures should be uploaded in the highest resolution (at least 200 dpi). References should be submitted in the proper format, as shown below. Supporting information should be submitted in separate files.

- The manuscript should be arranged in accordance with this instruction and (should be) checked by a native speaker of English, (otherwise it will be sent back by the editorial office for revision).
